

Michigan Coalition for Human Rights
ANNUAL DINNER AND RECEPTION

Saturday, March 24

4 PM – 7:30 PM

Marygrove College-Alumni Hall

8425 W. McNichols Detroit, MI 48221

Workers' Rights Are Human Rights

Keynote Speaker: Kim Bobo

Founder and Director of Interfaith Worker Justice

Kim is the Executive Director and founder of Interfaith Worker Justice, the nation's largest network of people of faith engaging in local and national actions to improve wages, benefits, and conditions for workers, especially those in low-wage economies. The author of Organizing for Social Change and Wage Theft in America, Kim was named one of Utne Reader's "50 Visionaries Who Are Changing the World" in 2009.

www.iwj.org

2012 Award Honorees:

Lifetime Activist Award: Dianne Feeley, Labor Activist

Community Activist Award: Herbert Sanders, AFSCME Legal Counsel

Congregation Activist Award: Gesu Parish/Gesu Peace and Justice Team

Media Activist Award: Between the Lines

Youth Activist Award: Youth of Occupy Detroit

EVENT EMCEE: AMY LANGE, Investigative TV Reporter

DINNER $50 . . . RECEPTION with DINNER $80

For tickets or for more info, contact MCHR office, 313-579-9071 or www.mchr.org