

2019 -2020 MCHR Board Slate

New Board Nominees

Jonathan Roberts is a community advocate, who works as a research analyst for the UAW and is focused on food labor (Detroit Food Policy Council) and housing. He spearheaded a city wide campaign, 1500 Detroit to prevent occupied foreclosed homes from being sold at auction.

Maya Radhakrishnan, a multi-talented senior at Roeper Upper School with interests in model UN, tennis, and art. She is a youth activist on the environment, having helped organize a student led an Earth Day demonstration around climate change in April

Tim Christiansen is an Oakland County Organizer with Michigan Liberation working on ending the mass incarceration of people of color, the mentally ill, drug-addicted, and youth and building community power with those who have been impacted by the system.

Lourdes Fonseca Nearon was raised in Southwest Detroit where, in addition to her work for peace, she has accompanied many immigrant families experiencing the violence of the U.S. immigration system. Two years ago, Lourdes initiated the Bodega Project, providing temporary assistance and direct aid to families when spouses are picked up by ICE/Homeland Security.

Reelection for Two Year Term

Stu Daly

Adonis Flores

Khurram Iman

Andrew Sarpolis

Barbara Jones

#